

The Washington County Transportation Authority (Washington Rides) is pleased to introduce a new fixed-route bus service called "The Freedom Line" in Washington County. This service will operate for a three-year demonstration period beginning May 16, 2011.

The Freedom Line will run from McDonald to Washington, Monday through Friday between 7 AM and 7 PM. Flag stops are available along the route.

The fare to ride the bus is $1.50. Exact change is required. Children 8 and under ride free when accompanied by an adult.

Persons age 65 and older will ride for free with a PA Transit ID Card or Medicare Card. Persons with Disabilities ride for 1/2 the fare with a state issued disability ID Card. Call 1-800-331-5058 for more details.
